

Privacy Policy:

Introduction:

Your privacy is important to us. This privacy policy explains what information our extension collects, how we use it, and how we protect it. By using our extension, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this policy.

Information We Collect:

Information from LinkedIn Profiles.

Profile Data: When you use the extension, it accesses information from LinkedIn profiles you visit, including names, job titles, and companies. This information is used solely to generate personalized invitation notes.

User Preferences

Personalized Templates: The extension allows you to create personalized templates for invitation notes. These templates are saved locally on your browser's storage and are not transmitted to our servers.

Usage Data

Extension Usage: We may collect information on how you interact with the extension, such as the number of invitation notes sent and any customization settings used. This data helps us improve the extension's functionality and user experience.

How We Use Your Information

Personalization: The main purpose of collecting information from LinkedIn profiles is to create personalized invitation notes that enhance your networking experience.

Customization: User preferences and stored templates are used to provide a seamless and customized experience each time you use the extension.

Improvement: Usage data helps us understand how the extension is used, allowing us to make improvements and add new features.

Data Security

We take the security of your data seriously and implement appropriate measures to protect it. The extension does not transmit any LinkedIn profile data or user preferences to remote servers. All data is processed and stored locally on your device.

Permissions

The extension requires the following permissions to function effectively:

tabs: To interact with LinkedIn in the active tab.

activeTab: To access the currently viewed LinkedIn profile.

storage: To save user preferences and templates.

Host permission (<https://www.linkedin.com/>): To access LinkedIn pages for gathering necessary profile information.

Third-Party Services

Our extension does not use third-party services to collect or store data. All processing is done locally within the extension.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page. You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes.
